

Maker To Wearer

Our new line of Fall Shoes solves the problem of good shoe making. They are the best made, from choosing the stock to the last finishing touch, they get the greatest care.

Better now than ever—$3.

SCHANK & SPENCER, 410 SPRUCE STREET.

CITY NOTES.

Thursday is the last day for paying state and county taxes in order to ensure a vote at the coming election. William Monecy, who went to the penitentiary two years ago for robbing F. J. Adams store on Adams avenue, was yesterday released.

John M. McCourt, a graduate of the Scranton high school yesterday registered as a law student in the office of Colonel F. J. Fitzsimmons.

The funeral of Russell Connell Fulton, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fulton, will take place in the office of the Rev. J. J. Fitzsimmons, at 2 o'clock.

The stock of Herman Langfeld, the Lackawanna avenue milliner, was sold yesterday by Deputy Sheriff Perber to the creditors by Attorney George D. Taylor for $75.50.

Lieutenant Colonel Mattes has ordered an election in Company C to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of second Lieutenant Wallace Moler. The election will be held Oct. 12, at 8 p. m.

Professor Sullivan, of Pittsburg, delivered an address in the hall of the city. He advocated that embalming be generally used and the ice box abolished.

Proctor Fuller, John J. Mann, John F. Snyder, D. J. Campbell, T. E. Reynolds, Michael Grimes and J. M. Corbett were yesterday appointed viewers to assess the value of land of Bridget Canavan, situated by the Meadow Brook Water company.

Mrs. Sadie Morton was held in $200 bail yesterday by Alderman Howe on a charge of slandering Mrs. Fannie Foster. The woman are colored and live in Hixson court. A few days ago Mrs. Foster was arraigned on a similar charge at the instance of Mrs. Morton.

In the estate of John B. Cust, late of this city, letters of administration were granted by Register Hopkins to the widow, Eliza B. Cust. The will of J. P. Acker was admitted to probate and letters of testamentary granted to his widow, Matilda B. Acker.

This evening a four-round glove contest between John Tiche and Tony Gordon will be seen at Davis' theater. It is claimed that one of the best light weight pugilists today in America is traveling with the Wood Staters company, and is anxious to make a match with Mr. Tiche if he proves himself a worthy opponent.

Marriage licenses were yesterday granted to William F. Hoie and Minnie P. Gibbons, of Scranton; Henry Conery and Ellen Burke, of Ohio; George D. Grady and Magale Coggins, of Carbonate; George E. Clark, of Fulton, N. Y., and Minnie E. Ray, of Syracuse, N. Y.; Thomas H. Thomas and Martha S. Zeigler, of Mooste; Minor E. Rogers and Mary A. Moran, of Dunmore.

The goods of Nelson Soogs were attached at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western station yesterday by Constable Cole upon the authority of a writ from Alderman Howe's court. Mr. Soogs rented a house from W. Gibson Jones and the lease provided that if he vacated during the year the remainder of the year's rent would become due at once. Soogs wanted to move to New York state and vacate. The rent became due, was not paid and the goods were attached. They are now in a store room on Spruce street owned by Mr. Jones.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE W. C. T. U.

Central City Organization in Session Yesterday Afternoon.

OFFICERS FOR THE ENSUING YEAR

Reports Were Received from 1897 Officers and the Superintendents of Departments—Formation of a Woman's Club Proposed, but No Action Taken—Officers Chosen Were Almost Without Exception the Same as Served Last Year.

The annual meeting of the central Woman's Christian Temperance union was held yesterday afternoon in its rooms in the Williams building, corner of Washington avenue and Linden street. Reports of officers and department superintendents were received and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. C. D. Simpson; first vice-president, Mrs. T. M. Porey; second vice-president, Mrs. George Field; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Amelia Smith; recording secretary, Miss Frances Raub; treasurer, Mrs. E. M. Tewksbury; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Frances Bestwick.

Mrs. Simpson presided and made a brief and informal address after the concluding of the devotional exercises, which opened the meeting. It was decided to hereafter hold but two meetings a month. The formation of a woman's club was discussed, but not to any definite conclusion.

The report of Miss Frances Raub as recording secretary was as follows: We have held our meetings regularly once a week, with the exception of ten, or I should say, with the exception of two, beside the summer vacation, making 42 meetings held with an average attendance of twelve. We have fifty members. The first meeting of the month is devoted to business principally; the second to readings from the Responsive Readings, Bulletin and Union Signal; the third, miscellaneous, and the fourth evangelistic. Every meeting is opened with a devotional exercise, and usually closed with our temperance doxology and W. C. T. U. benediction. A small collection is taken, which is used for literature.

TWO EXECUTIVE MEETINGS. Two executive meetings have been held, one a very pleasant one at Mrs. Simpson's home, after a luncheon. Park held three public meetings in Elm Park lecture room. One was addressed by Miss Anna Langworthy, superintendent and lecturer on "Health and Heredity." The second meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. C. King, West Side dealer in second-hand goods, who spent Monday night in the debtors' cell of the county jail, was released yesterday under the provisions of the insolvency act. His attorney, Frank E. Boyle, secured his release.

The incarceration of King was due to the fact that he could not pay a judgment of $44.20, obtained against him before Alderman Wright in an action in trespass brought against him by J. W. Guernsey. On Aug. 5 judgment was rendered against King and on Aug. 11 King paid the costs and said he would take an appeal. A transcript was made out, but he never called for it and hence the appeal was never entered in the prothonotary's office.

Sept. 29 was the last day for taking an appeal on writ of certiorari and on Aug. 11 King paid the costs and said he would take an appeal. A transcript was made out, but he never called for it and hence the appeal was never entered in the prothonotary's office.
